SUPPLEMENT

ORIGIN [REDACTED]

1. Peace and order are despotically maintained by the joint forces of the Soviets and the Chinese Communists. Outwardly, they appear to carry out their missions peaceably, but it is not safe to be on the streets after dark. Gunshots are heard continually night and day.
2. The Peace Force is the training center for Chinese Communists and serves as an auxiliary force for the Soviet Army. It is organized as follows:

Major General Kochanov [? Korzhanov ?]
Chief of Police Affairs
for Port Arthur and Dairen

5 Patrol Chiefs
(1 is a Soviet Naval officer; the rest are Soviet majors.)

Mayor and Deputy Mayor of Dairen. (Both Chinese.)

Chief of Peace Bureau
(Also holds post of Chief, Justice Department)

Special Police Force	Dairen Peace Bureau	Shuishang District	Shahokou District	Linchien District	Hsiaokangtzu District
----------------------	---------------------	--------------------	-------------------	-------------------	-----------------------

The chief of the Peace Bureau and of the district bureaus are all Chinese; the nationality of the head of the Special Police Force is not stated. [REDACTED] 25X1A6a
Note: The exact relationship of the "Dairen Peace Bureau" to the district organizations is not clear. It is possible that a central office or headquarters administrative staff is referred to above, since district organizations under the Chief of the Peace Bureau would presumably be part of that bureau.)

3. The Chief of the Soviet Police Affairs Bureau controls the secret police besides having jurisdiction over the Peace Department of the Municipal Government. The latter organization performs the routine police duties.
4. The police administration's policy of obtaining secret information is patterned on that used in Russia. A Chinese is employed to spy upon a Chinese, a Japanese on a Japanese. Betrayals are frequent. The Japanese Labor Union is a tool of the secret police.
